Pacific Forum Line provide this information in good faith and accepts no responsibility for transport costs incurred during or prior to delivery of export cargo. Shippers and transport companies have the responsibility to confirm all receival times with the wharf and secure time slots prior to dispatching transport.
Early reefer receivals gated-in ahead of the above advised reefer receival dates will be charged to a/c shipper @ AUD$42.00+ GST per calendar day (or part thereof) plus any applicable terminal storages charges.
All Hazardous documentation must be clearly signed and confirmed lodged with Port Corp 24 HOURS PRIOR to dispatching transport. Driver to have a copy of the Port Corp haz cargo lodgement advice when delivering cargo to wharf plus appropriate MO41 documents. Container is to be clearly labeled on all sides with appropriate stickers.
Demurrage charges and fines incurred due to incorrect late receival procedure or incomplete haz cargo documentation, including unsigned documents or entries not lodged by shipper with Port Corp WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED by Pacific Forum Line or their Principals.We reserve the right to alter hazardous cargo receivals at short notice to comply with local port requirements.
Breaches of these requirements may result in the shipper removing their cargo from the wharf at their expense, if delivered contrary to our instruction or at AMSA's request if incorrect or incomplete.
